

CITIZENSHIP & IMMIGRATION

HOT ETHICAL ISSUES FOR IMMIGRATION LAWYERS

Come and join this luncheon program to learn from the experts on how to handle difficult situations:

- Learn how to practice defensively and avoid ethical pitfalls
- Learn how to avoid conflicts of interest and potential liability
- Get expert advice on how to deal with problem clients and questionable activities
- Learn how to maintain high competence standards
- Document fraud, misrepresentation and money laundering

Our distinguished speakers include:

John B. Laskin, Partner, Torys LLP practices all types of business litigation with an emphasis on public law, constitutional law, competition law and defamation. He has appeared as counsel in the Supreme Court of Canada, at every level of court in Ontario, and before a variety of administrative tribunals.

Andrea Waltman, Counsel Professional Development and Competence LSUC primarily responsible for providing guidance to members regarding professional responsibility and practice management issues through the Law Society of Upper Canada's Practice Management Helpline. She has been an instructor in several sections of the Bar Admissions Course and is a frequent presenter at continuing legal education programs.

Sergio R. Karas, B.A., LL.B., is a Certified Specialist in Canadian Citizenship and Immigration Law by the Law Society of Upper Canada. Mr. Karas is a speaker, writer and lecturer on immigration issues and current Secretary of the OBA Citizenship and Immigration section.
